Narrative: The Palm Bay Police Department received a call from the phone number [redacted] at the home of the victim, a 12-year-old child, to several of the dispatch personnel, in which the caller's voice was consistent with a young white male, consistent with the victim's description. The caller stated that he was no longer where he lived and would be on his way home at 2pm. Cpl. Hensel initially responded and made contact with the school's administrator, Mrs. Kametob. The discussion took place and the child was escorted to the adjacent [redacted].
