

U.S. Department of Justice

Federal Bureau of Investigation

In Reply, Please Refer to File No.

Pittsburgh, PA 15202-2140
February 26, 2003

INTERNATIONAL TERRORISM
MATTERS

your agency may already be aware:

Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (PA), telephone 412-361-3022

www.unitedforpeace.org has been determined to be an organization which is opposed to the United States' war with

"All who desire peace and an end to war
gather at the Federal Building downtown Pittsburgh, and pray for an interfaith prayer vigil, 5 P.M. for a rally, and possible civil disobedience for those prepared to do this."

Also listed on the website is the date February 15, 2003. This day is a day of international protesters against the war war promoted by United for Peace and Justice (www.unitedforpeace.org). The organization hosted the

The United Nations' 50th anniversary of the end of World War II Pittsburgh region were making the trip to New York City for the marches, rallies, and vigils in Youngstown, Ohio (OH)

Pittsburgh, PA.

Regional events included:

- 12:00 P.M. North Side Vigil for Peace in Iraq, Allegheny UU Church, North Avenue and Resaca Place (North Side)

INTERNATIONAL TERRORISM
MATTERS

12:00 P.M. East Liberty Community Vigil for Peace, corner of Penn and Highland (East Liberty)

12:00 P.M. Regent Square Community Vigil for Peace in Iraq, Waverly Church, corner of Eads and Braddock (Regent Square)

The above information is for your use only.