INTRODUCTION

The United States of America, by and through Stephen Dattelbach, United States

Attorney, and Linda Borg, Assistant United States Attorney, hereby comes before this Court and asks the Court to issue a writ under the All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651, for an order requiring Apple, Inc. ("Apple") to assist in the execution of a federal search warrant by bypassing the iOS lock screen of four (4) iOS devices, specifically, three (3) Apple iPhones and one (1) Apple iPad.

FACTS

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) currently has in its possession four (4) iOS devices that were seized pursuant to a search warrant issued by this Court. Initial inspection of the iOS devices reveals that they are locked. Because the iOS devices are locked, law enforcement agents are not able to examine the data stored on the iOS devices as commanded by the search warrant.

The iOS devices are:

1. A white Apple iPhone. It has Model #A1428, IMEI 013329001101417, FCC ID: RCG-E2599A and IC: 579C-E2599A
E2380A, IC: 579C-E2380A.
3. A white Apple iPhone. It has Model A1429, IMEI: 990002755503982, ID: BCG-E2599A and IC: 579C-E2610A.
4. An Apple iPad. It has Model A1219, Serial HW113BHLZ3A, EMC 2311, FCC ID: RCG-E2381A, IC: 579C-E2381A.

Apple, the creator of the iOS operating system and producer of the iOS device, may have the capability retrieving data stored on the iOS device that is not currently accessible to the FBI because the iOS device is locked. This Application seeks an order compelling Apple to use such capability, so as to assist agents in complying with the search warrant.

DISCUSSION

The All Writs Act provides that “[t]he Supreme Court and all courts established by Act of Congress have the same powers, both civil and criminal, as the Supreme Court of the United States, and shall exercise the same, according to the usages and principles of law.” 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a). As the Supreme Court explained, “[t]he All Writs Act is a residual source of authority for federal courts to issue writs otherwise covered by statute.” Pennsylvania Bureau of Correction v. United States Marshals Service, 474 U.S. 24, 42 (1985). “The writs are for all extraordinary circumstances, to persons who, though not parties to the original action or engaged in wrongdoing, are in a position to frustrate the implementation of a court order or the proper administration of justice... and encompasses even those who have not taken any affirmative action to hinder justice.” United States v. New York Tel. Co., 434 U.S. 159, 174 (1977).

Specifically, in United States v. New York Tel. Co., the Supreme Court held that the All Writs Act permitted district courts to order telephone company to effectuate a search warrant by installing a pen register. Under the reasoning of New York Tel. Co., this Court should order Apple to order Apple to use any capabilities it may have to assist in effectuating the search warrant.

The government is aware, and its representatives, that in other cases, courts have ordered Apple to assist in effectuating search warrants under the authority of the All Writs Act.

Additionally, Apple has complied with such orders.

The requested order would enable agents to comply with this Court's warrant ~~commanding that the iOS device be examined for evidence identified by the warrant. Examining~~ the iOS device without Apple's assistance, if it is possible at all, would require significant ~~resources and time to do so. The iOS device is a single, integrated unit that is not easily altered.~~ unreasonable burden on Apple.

Respectfully submitted,

AUSA Linda Darr

("Apple") to assist law enforcement agents in the search of an Apple iOS device. Upon consideration of the motion, and for the reasons stated therein, it is hereby ~~ORDERED that Apple's reasonable technical assistance may include, but is not limited to, providing~~

(4) iOS devices, specifically three (3) Apple iPhones and one (1) Apple iPad (the "iOS Devices"), acting in support of a search warrant issued separately by this Court;

The iOS devices are:

~~FURTHER ORDERED that Apple shall provide reasonable technical assistance to~~ law enforcement agents to obtain access to unencrypted data ("Data") on the iOS Devices.

FURTHER ORDERED that, to the extent that data on the iOS Devices is encrypted, Apple may provide a copy of the encrypted data to law enforcement, but Apple is not required to attempt to decrypt, or otherwise enable, law enforcement's attempts to access encrypted data.

FURTHER ORDERED that Apple's reasonable technical assistance may include, but is not limited to, bypassing the iOS Device user's passcode, so that the courts may search the iOS

~~Devices extracting data from the iOS Devices and copying the data onto an external hard drive~~

the iOS Device's security systems to allow law enforcement access to Data and to provide law enforcement with a copy of encrypted data stored on the iOS Devices;

FURTHER ORDERED that although Apple shall make reasonable efforts to maintain the integrity of data on the iOS Devices, Apple shall not be required to maintain copies of any user data as a result of the assistance ordered herein; all evidence preservation shall remain the responsibility of law enforcement agents.
